Visiting Graduates

In February, I spoke in Belgrade, Montana and was able to see three of our graduates either at the program or on the way to Montana. These men are doing exceptionally well in their ministries of preaching the gospel. It was a joy to see them and enjoy short visits with all of them. Keep our graduates in your prayers as well as the men who are currently training with us.

What's Going On...

Errick Crump preached and led singing at Pagosa Springs, Colorado last month. In addition to his weekly assignments, Errick is now teaching the Wednesday night adult class on the subject of the "The Church of Christ."

David Malley has completed his first teaching class with us on 1st and 2nd Timothy. I believe that he learned a lot from the experience and is improving. He continues to preach in rotation with the other men on Sunday afternoons. David has also been filling in for me when I am out of town in my Sunday morning class on Proverbs.

Jess Simpson is doing well and is developing into a capable speaker. He is working on future classes he will teach while with us and continues to take a turn with the other preachers in presenting sermons here in Durango.

I was asked to preach at the Belgrade, Montana congregation in February on the subject of "Truth." Belgrade has two fine elders who shepherd the flock and a respected preacher. It was a pleasure being with this congregation for the three days I was there. Two of our graduate families, Steve and Darla Hill and also Blu and Emily Kropp along with their children, Felicity, Cole, Quentin, and little Blu were able to attend. I had breakfast with Mark Collins, another graduate, on the way up to Montana. It is always great to see our graduates.
