DURANGO Intern Report

Second Graduate Reunion

August 8-11 are the dates for our second reunion with our graduates. We hope that several will be able to return. All the returnees will have an opportunity to preach to everyone who can attend and some will be addressing our congregation either on Sunday, the 11th, or if they are able to come early, on Wednesday the 7th. Chris Macy, one of our graduates is coordinating this year's effort due to my heavy speaking schedule. We appreciate Chris volunteering to do this. He preaches at Cave Creek, Arizona.

The schedule has not been completely worked out yet, but we hope to have plenty of opportunity to do some work in the Word. I have been asked to present several class sessions on the subject of the Holy Spirit, which I am happy to do.

We also plan to have some time for entertainment and fellowship. At our last reunion, we all went out to the Bar D Chuckwagon one night and we also had a hay ride at the farm of one of our brothers here in Durango. Everyone had a good time.

We hope this reunion will be an encouragement to our graduates. We know it is encouraging to us in Durango. We are very proud of these men who have dedicated their lives to preaching the gospel. We are pleased that they came our way to continue their training. We continue to pray for all of our graduates, who are being blessed by the Lord.

Visiting Graduates

On my recent trip to preach at Rupert, Idaho, I stopped to have breakfast with a couple of our graduates. From left to right, Kyle (a friend of Marty's), Mark Collins who preaches at Price, Utah, and Marty Johnson who preaches at Moab, Utah. We enjoyed some good Bible discussion and fellowship.

What's Going On...

Errick Crump has safely arrived in Tennessee to begin his first full time ministry. Please pray for the Crump family.

David Malley has preached and taught classes in Moab, Utah in the absence of their preacher. In his assignments each week, he is now working on a class on the Parables of Jesus, along with his other duties. David has taken a week's vacation time the first week in July.

Jess Simpson continues his assignments and takes his turn in the preaching schedule. He is teaching the Wednesday night adult class on the subject of the names and titles of Jesus.

I will be speaking at the Teton Family Encampment July 14-17 and also preaching and teaching for a week at the Yellowstone Bible Camp, July 28-August 2. When I return home, we have our own Graduate Reunion scheduled. A few of the men will be able to return and be with us. We will have them scheduled to speak to all who can attend. I will be developing some material on the subject of the Holy Spirit for the graduates. We will also plan some entertaining activities to enjoy one another's fellowship. I have a full schedule of speaking appointments each month during the fall and winter. Our interns do well in the preaching and teaching when I am out of town. This provides them with even more needed experience in the Word.
