DURANGO Intern Report

December, 2013

Malley Graduates December 15

David Malley completes his eighteen months training soon. His graduation date is set for Sunday, December 15. He will be packing up that week and then heading for Moab, Utah to begin his ministry.

David is no stranger to Moab because he has filled in there on several occasions during his tenure with Durango. He has said that he is glad that he will be living close to Durango (about 3 hours away) to maintain contact with us.

David Malley becomes our 19th graduate and will begin his first full-time ministry at Moab, Utah.

Anonymous Donation...

We rejoice to announce that we have received a donation of $10,000 to the Intern Program. The donor wishes to remain anonymous, but his or her good works are shining forth as a bright light.

Sizeable donations like this will not be reflected in our monthly income, but will go into our general fund from which we draw whatever is lacking for a month's financial needs. The Lord has truly blessed us this year in giving us enough financial support to fulfill our obligations. Thank you one and all for your generosity.

What's Going On...

David Malley is winding down his time with us. He completes his teaching of the Parables in Luke, the first week in December. He has been preaching out, filling in for absent preachers at Bayfield, Pagosa Springs, South Fork, and also at Moab, Utah. His last day with us will be December 15th. The Durango congregation has agreed to help support David in Moab at $250 per month. He almost has all his support raised.

Jess Simpson continues his studies with us and will begin teaching the adult Wednesday night class in December. He has done a lot of the preaching here in David's absence. We meet together every Friday for his session and going over his assignments.

I have been busy teaching here and in other places. I held a meeting in Baldwin City, Kansas this past month and will be going to West Yellowstone, Montana for their annual Rendezvous in December.

There are some exciting changes we will be announcing next month that will effect our work in training preachers in a positive way. We hope that all of you will be able to continue supporting this work in the coming years. We have prayed for you all recently and will continue to do so. Please include us in your prayers and also our graduates who are out on the front lines holding their ground for truth.
