How To Get There

The workshop site is located 30 miles north of Durango, or 17 miles south of Silverton. At two miles north from the Purgatory (now called Durango Mountain) Ski Area, locate the southern entrance to the Old Lime Creek Road (there should be a green sign - it is a dirt road). Proceed east on Old Lime Creek Road 0.9 miles to the first driveway on the left.

The 22nd Annual Workshop in the Word

Please Read All Materials Before Sending In Registration. There will again be two options in regard to sleeping quarters. Option One, of course, is the barracks style quarters of the Cascade lodge (snoring at no extra charge).

Option Two is to share a condominium with other men, but with more private baths. We have made arrangements with Brimstone Condos, (the ones we've used several years - see map). You may opt for a private, single occupancy room at $70 per night or bunk with a roommate at $50 per night per person (roommates may have to share the same king or queen size bed). You may bring your wife (at $50 per night for her) as a roommate, however, the workshop is only for men (there is good shopping in Durango). Those wanting single occupancy will be given a private room (however, on rare occasions this might be the hide-a-bed in the living room), the double occupancy option will be a bedroom or the living room (couch beds) if we have a large crowd. Roommates will be assigned to those who want double occupancy but have not made prior arrangements for a roommate. All those staying at the lodge (or "off campus" on their own) will pay a total of $50 for two (or three) nights lodging with meals. All meals and workshop sessions will continue to be held at the lodge. Please read all materials carefully and send in your registration with a check for the correct amount along with the signed indemnification sheet. Like last year, if you would like to come a day early on Wednesday afternoon, you are welcome to spend that night at the lodge with no extra charge and enjoy the area on Thursday. The condos will cost the extra per day amount. Get your reservation in early... it is going to be a great study of Matthew 14-28!
