Know Your Bible Answer:

Before marriage Boaz was a totally “ruthless” man. “So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife, and he went in to her. And the LORD enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son.” (Ruth 4:13)

Family Happenings

Several of our number have been sick with the latest ‘Durango crud’ that’s going around town. Unfortunately our worship assembly is a perfect breeding ground for passing on our germs to each other. Be sure wash your hands and use the hand sanitizer provided in the restrooms so that brotherly love is all we share with each other.

Please continue to pray for our intern program, that God will send us the right man for Guy to train in the important ministry of preaching.

Great Bible Leaders: Joseph

The leadership of Joseph provides great spiritual lessons from Scripture. Joseph endured adverse circumstances. He was rejected by his brothers, sold into slavery, tempted, falsely accused, wrongly thrown into prison, and forgotten.

HOWEVER, the entire account teaches us wonderful lessons about spiritual leadership. No matter what happens, God is always with us. Throughout the account of Joseph we find a key phrase; “and God was with him.” With each event in Joseph’s life we are reminded of this truth.

Remember God is always working toward a greater purpose. Joseph trusted that God was working for good, even in what appeared to be evil. God saw the ultimate saving of Israel, not just the well-being of Joseph. “As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good in order to bring about this present result, to preserve many people alive,” (Genesis 50:20).

Faithfulness will exult an individual and a nation. Joseph was eventually elevated to power over all of Egypt. This act led to the saving and development of God’s people.

These are powerful lessons in application for leaders today. If we can learn God is with us, He works in our lives for a greater purpose, and faithfulness will result in exultation, then our leadership is rooted in the right foundation.
