"The world is full of suffering but it is also full of the overcoming of it."

~ Helen Keller

“Therefore we do not lose heart, but though our outer man is decaying, yet our inner man is being renewed day by day. For momentary, light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison,”

~ 2 Corinthians 4:16–17

He lives, and YES there's proof!

Jon Allegro, in his 2009 book The Sacred Mushroom and the Cross, writes “Jesus probably never lived, and Christianity probably originated by a secret cult whose original intent was eventually forgotten.” But is that what the historical evidence proves? Let's ask some non-Christin historians who were there.

1st Century Roman Historian Cornelius Tacitus

“Nero fastened the guilt and inflicted the most exquisite tortures on a class hated for their abominations, called Christians by the populace. Christ, from whom the name had its origin, suffered the extreme penalty during the reign of Tiberius at the hands of one of our procurators, Pontius Pilate.”

Cover-Up Letter Circulated by the Jewish Sanhedrin Court

“A godless and lawless heresy had sprung up from one Jesus a Galilean deceiver, whom we crucified; but his disciples stole him by night from the tomb, where he was laid when unfastened from the cross, and now deceive men by asserting that he has risen from the dead and ascended to heaven.”

Flavius Josephus in his Antiquities of the Jews 18:3:3

“And there arose about this time Jesus, a wise man, if indeed we should call him a man; for he was a doer of marvelous deeds, a teacher of men who receive the truth with pleasure. He led away many Jews, and also Greeks. He was the Christ. And when Pilate had condemned him to the cross on his impeachment by the chief men among us, those who had loved him at first did not cease; for he appeared to them on the third day alive again... and even now the tribe of Christians, so named after him, has not yet died out.”

“I was dead, and behold I am alive forevermore” (Rev. 1:18)
