Know Your Bible Answer:

“I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down,” (KJV). Okay, just kidding. Of course this verse does not at all serve as instruction for which gender should wash dishes (although some have used it that way). But husbands you can't go wrong in doing your fair share of cleaning up after supper.

“Why?”

There is something about being around children that draws out this question. How many times this question has been asked by a five year old is probably innumerable. But suffice it to say many! It is the most difficult question to answer. Yet, children are always asking. They want to know the reasons behind what we are saying and doing.

Of all the questions one could ask, this three lettered word makes a complete question in and of itself. This question is also one that should be prevalent when thinking about our leadership within Christ's church.

“Why are leaders needed?”

“Why do we need to make this decision?”

“Why are we making this decision at this time?”

“Why should we lead?”

“Why?”

We could resolve many issues within our congregations if we could determine the answers to the question...why? Take a moment to look through the gospel accounts and consider the questions asked by Jesus that begin with why.

“Why are you worried?”

“Why are you afraid?”

“Why are you testing Me?”

“Why do you call Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and do not do what I say?”

Think about it!

History Runs on Repeat

How often do we hear people say, “The Bible doesn’t specifically forbid this activity, so I’m sure God will be happy with it”? Most often this argument is used to justify changing the kind of worship God specifically requested in His word. I wish those who use this line of reasoning could ask Nadab and Abihu what they think of that argument today. Those who respect God’s authority already know (cf. Leviticus 10:1-3).
