Intern Report

from Director
Guy Orbison, Jr.

New Intern Has Arrived

The Crumps, (including Errick, Leann, Micah, Toby, and Lydia) are now safely in Durango. We are grateful to the Lord for their arrival in our town to begin their work in preacher training. Errick is already settled into his office here at the building and is presently working on weekly assignments. He has preached his first sermon with us and is already in the rotation of preaching at the Sunday afternoon assembly.

This is a delightful family who already endeared themselves to all of us in Durango. Errick has exhibited a good work ethic and has a great desire to become a gospel preacher. We look forward to many good months of study and training together.

We have had several other men to apply to our program, but we are unable to accept every one of them and have had to make some decisions. We have decided to accept two additional men in future months. As one graduates, there will be another arriving almost immediately. So, we will likely not have another opening to accept a new applicant until sometime in 2013. The interest in our program seems to be growing as students in various schools are hearing about this work. Thank you to everyone receiving this monthly report for your support in the past and for your continued support of the men who come to train. You can see each month that the amount of support needed is beyond our ability in Durango... so we are very grateful for your help.

Errick has arranged his huge office for the purpose of quality study and preparation to preach the word.

A Busy Month...

Since Steven Hill will be our next graduate, he has been sending out information to congregations looking for a preacher. He has spoken at a few churches and will continue to do so in the next few weeks. He has also continued his weekly assignments here and continues to teach the Wednesday night class. Steve Hill has is now preparing for teaching an adult class in the future and has taken his turn in the rotation of preaching. He has filled in for me in preaching when I've been out in meetings. Errick Crump has gotten his feet wet already and has preached once. We've had two meetings to begin his assignments and he is hard at work. We are now ready to include him in the rotation of preaching.

I conducted two gospel meetings in Texas in September. I enjoyed the opportunities to preach and teach, but had a terrible cough and was not "up to par" in my health. I thought it was allergies, but upon returning to Durango, my doctor diagnosed it as walking pneumonia. I am now on medication that will hopefully improve health and my voice, which has somewhat deserted me. The gospel meetings were at the Gardendale congregation near Odessa and the Birdwell Lane congregation in Big Spring. Kenny Garcia, our most recent graduate is now the preacher for this congregation and he is doing well. We had a good visit for a few days.
